Introduction

In submitting the extremely valuable Collection of the Towneley Manuscripts for public competition it will only be necessary to point out that to Lancashire and Yorkshire Historians the Transcripts made by Christopher Towneley, in the Reigns of Charles I and II, from Manuscripts now lost or destroyed, abound in most important Evidences which will be sought for in vain elsewhere. Christopher Towneley was the younger son of Richard Towneley senior, and was born at Towneley 9th January 1603, married Alice daughter of John Braddyll of Portfield and widow of Richard Towneley of Carr, and was buried at Burnley in August 1674. He was devotedly attached to the study of Genealogies, and was indefatigable in collecting Evidences illustrative of the Towneley Family and those connected with it. He appears to have been intimately acquainted with Sir W. Dugdale and all the Members of the Heralds' College, from whom he obtained most valuable information. The Heads of Lancashire and Yorkshire Families permitted him to copy the contents of their Muniment Rooms, and in transcribing the store of Evidences, borrowed from friends and correspondents, he has frequently added marginal notes, proving his intimate acquaintance with family pedigrees. In addition to these invaluable Transcripts we must be content to mention the well known Manuscript on Vellum, written circa 1388, commonly called THE TOWNELEY MYSTERIES ; the Treatises of Wycliffe ; the Salisbury Horae and Breviaria; the Armorum Ministerium, written in 1416 ; the Pedwardyn, Wilstrobe and other Cartularies ; the various Collections of Armorial Bearings and Pedigrees ; the splendid Manuscript of Higdeni Polycronicon ; the Ordinances and Tracts relating to the History and Customs of England and France ; Holbein's beautiful original Drawings of the Court of Francis I ; and last not least, THE MAGNIFICENT VITA CHRISTI, GORGEOUSLY ORNAMENTED WITH FULL-PAGE PAINTINGS AND WITH MINIATURES, SUPERBLY EXECUTED IN COLOURS, HEIGHTENED WITH GOLD, BY GIULIO CLOVIO, IN THE FINEST STYLE OF ITALIAN ART.

- 201 TILSTON (J.) ROYAL AND NOBLE PEDIGREES
AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, with numerous coats of arms (several emblazoned in colours), with additions in a later handwriting and an Index of names, half morocco 1677
*** This important Manuscript contains Genealogies of the Dukes of Normandy, from Rollo I to William the Conqueror, and of the Royal Houses of England down to 1677 ; and also Pedigrees of Howard Duke of Norfolk, Seymour, Hastings, Wriothesley, Stewart Earl of Lenox, Warren Earl of Surrey, Howard in all its Branches, Egerton in all its Branches, and Neville Barons of Raby in all its branches.
- 202 TOWNELEY MYSTERIES. A most valuable Collection of early English Mysteries supposed to have been written at Woodkirk in the Cell there of Augustinian or Black Canons for the Amusement and Edification of Persons attending these Pageants MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM written circa 1388 in a bold hand with Initial Letters ornamented with the Pen, having the Speeches separated by lines of red Ink, olive morocco extra, gold tooling, tooled leather joints, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, back broken, SAEC. XIV
*** The Mysteries (or Miracle Plays) contained in this remarkable Volume are : Creatio, Mactatio Abel, Processus Noe cum Filiis, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Processus Prophetarum, Pharo, Caesar Augustus, Annunciatio, Salutacio Elizabeth., Prima Pagina Pastorum, Secunda Pagina Pastorum, Oblacio Magorum, Fugacio Joseph et Mariae in Ægyptum, Magnus Herodes, Purificacio Mariae, Pagina Doctorum, Johannes Baptista, Conspiracio et Capcio, Coliphizatio Flagellacio, Processus Crucis Crucifixio, Processus Talentorum, Extractio Animarum al Inferno, Resurrectio Domini, Peregrini, Thomas Indiae, Ascencio Domini, Juditium, Lazarus and Suspentio Judae (this last has been added subsequently and probably written by a scribe at the end of the xvth century). The composition of these Pageants betrays a northern origin and the Secunda Pastorum, described by Mr, Collier as the most singular Piece in the whole collection" offers local allusions tending strongly to corroborate the claim of Woodkirk to the production of these Mysteries.
